From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Junior Gets "Pinned" Down

From where I sit, that's a cute example of a mighty important point—if you want things to turn out your way, then you had better let the other fellow have his choice, too. For instance, if your taste should happen to run to, say, iced tea... then you owe it to your health and your taste to prefer her, buttermilk or whatever you get to enjoy their favorite beverages, too. After all, turnabout's fair play.

The kids have had problems in staging the annual football game, the admission fee, Junior wanted to charge five cents, Mrs. Baker thought it would be much more than five cents. So he joined in a meeting with his Directors—then told his mother they'd taken her advice. The ads now read: Giant Circus in Baker's Backyard. Advertising Fire Pits Plus Five Cent Tax.

HUBERT "GATOR" TILLERY
Continued patronage of a business establishment proves that the management has a thorough understanding of the necessary service to be rendered and of the needs of the customers and that prices have been kept competitive at all times, with the quality of the service equal to that of the best known and sold out. We are therefore proud to include Mr. Gator Tillery who has managed Alfar Creamery Co., 108 N. Main since 1937. The Creamery has served the people here since 1932.

A man whose community pride runs high, Mr. Tillery has identified himself with many civic and other affairs in this city but at the main points of interest in this issue are directed to his basic business policy. This could not have come about without his desire to give the utmost in service and value and, by so doing, he has retained the respect of his customers and the confidence of the community. We are certain that in the future, in the past Gator will spare no effort to justify this confidence and continue to maintain a dairy of which Belle Glade can be proud.
